

Bail Fund Names Sent to FBI

NEW YORK, June 30 (AP).—State Attorney General Nathaniel L. Goldstein today said names of 6442 contributors to the Civil Rights Congress bail fund have been sent to FBI headquarters in Washington.

The fund allegedly has been used as bail for Communist Party leaders under Federal charges.

Goldstein also said the bail fund had agreed to a permanent injunction against its continued activities and to liquidation of its assets by a court-appointed trustee. Assets of the funds, making $717,000 have been frozen since May 2.

The Civil Rights Congress has been labelled subversive by the United States Attorney General's office.

Goldstein said he would not make the names public in the interest of national security. The FBI, he said, would best be able to determine whether the list discloses any subversive elements.
