

RED OUTLAW BILL SCORED

Assailed by 4 Organizations— Eisenhower Veto Urged

Attacks on the recently passed Congressional bill outlawing the Communist party were made yesterday by the American Civil Liberties Union, Civil Rights Congress, National Lawyers Guild and the Progressive party.

The Civil Liberties Union declared that the bill was unconstitutional and urged President Eisenhower to veto it, adding that it was prepared to join in any court test of the act. The guild asserted that the bill makes "a mockery * * * of our most basic Constitutional guarantees."

The Progressive party held that the bill was "conceived in hate and passed in hysteria by a cowardly Congress." The Civil Rights Congress asserted that the bill was "an expression of the lawlessness engendered by the anti-Communist hysteria being whipped up by the McaCrthy-Brownell-Fascist junta that is trying to take control of the Government."
