

RED BAIL UNIT CALLS FOR CASH MEMBERS

With four of its top officials in the Federal House of Detention at 427 West Street, the Civil Rights Congress of 23 West Twenty-sixth Street appealed yesterday for funds and new members.

The pro-Communist organization announced publication of a ten-cent pamphlet containing adverse comment on the United States Supreme Court's decision upholding the Smith Act. William L. Patterson, executive secretary of the Congress, urged the public to buy the pamphlet in bulk. The pamphlet itself carried a plea for new members to join the Congress at $1 a year.

The trustees of the Congress' bail fund jailed for contempt of court are Frederick Vanderbilt Field, serving ninety days, and Abner Green, Dashiell Hammett and W. Alpheus Hunton, six months each.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 28 (AP)

—Three women arrested by the Federal Bureau of Investigation in its roundup of Communist leaders in California went to jail today in lieu of $50,000 bail each.

They had been free on bail ranging from $2,500 to $7,500. Higher bond was set after United States Attorney Chauncey Tramutolo noted that "there is grave danger these defendants will flee" unless the surety was increased.

The women are Mrs. Loretta Stack, former state party organization secretary; Mrs. Oleta O'Connor Yates, state party secretary, and Miss Bernadette Doyle, San Francisco organizer.

Four men, arrested in the same F. B. I. roundup of Reds on Thursday already were in their cells, with their bail, too, set at $50,000 each.
