

Rights Group Bail Voided in Perjury Case

The $10,000 bail bond posted by the left-wing Civil Rights Congress for Harold R. Christoffel, Milwaukee labor leader convicted of perjury, was ordered canceled yesterday.

District Court Judge Burnita S. Matthews ordered the cancellation, saying the Government had proved the Civil Rights Congress "is not a reliable or satisfactory agency" to insure Christoffel's presence in court.

She pointed out the CRC has acted as bondsman for "numerous defendants and convicts" who later eluded capture by the authorities. These included, the Government said, four Communists now fugitives from justice.

The CRC posted $10,000 in United States Treasury Bonds for Christoffel after he was convicted. Under sentence to six years in prison, he is now free pending an appeal review of his conviction by the United States Court of Appeals.

Judge Matthews directed that he appear by noon September 14 with other bail subject to court approval. If he does not surrender by that time or furnish proper bail, the $10,000 posted by the CRC will be forfeited to the Government.
