

TAX LIEN CLAMPED ON RED BAIL FUND

$376,000 Put in Escrow After U. S. Files for $1,764 Owed by Civil Rights Congress

A tax lien of $1,764.19 was filed yesterday against the Civil Rights Congress for unpaid withholding and Social Security taxes.

The clerk of the Federal District Court in Foley Square, where the lien was filed by Denis J. McMahon, Collector of Internal Revenue for the Second District, was directed to hold in escrow bail bonds totaling $376,000 posted by the Civil Rights Congress' bail fund committee for defendants in the Communist conspiracy cases.

The tax lien is for taxes not paid for the two last quarters of 1950 and the second quarter of 1951. Collector McMahon said that returns were filed for three quarters, but no cash was paid. For the first quarter of 1951, the organization presented both a return and the amount due.

Included in the lien are $1,675.50 in employees' income and Social Security taxes, $55.67 as a penalty and $33.02 in delinquency interest.

The Civil Rights Congress, which has offices at 23 West Twenty-sixth Street, has been listed by the Attorney General as a Communist-front group.

In another development yesterday, Federal Judge Edward J. Dimock ordered William Schneiderman, acting head of the Communist party in the United States, removed to Los Angeles to face trial there along with eleven other party officials picked up on the West Coast.

Judge Dimock on Tuesday had signed a warrant for the removal of Schneiderman to California, but had directed that its execution be stayed until 12:10 P. M. yesterday to give the defendant a chance to obtain his release in $50,000 bail.

Mrs. Carol King, his attorney, said Schneiderman had been unable to raise the bail.

At removal proceedings in Brooklyn Federal Court before United States Commissioner Martin C. Epstein, Mrs. Dorothy Rose Blumberg, 47 years old, the former treasurer and educational director of the party's Maryland district, received an adjournment to Aug. 23 for personal reasons.

Philip Frankfeld, 44, Cleveland party organizer, waived removal to Baltimore on a Federal warrant. He is held in $100,000 bail and Mrs. Blumberg in $75,000. Both are alleged ex-leaders of the Communist party in the Baltimore-Washington area. Mrs. Blumberg was arrested Tuesday in her home at 26A Brighton Tenth Court, Brooklyn. Frankfeld was seized the same day at La Guardia Airport.
