

TWO COMMUNISTS BAILED

$10,000 Each Supplied by Friend of Civil Rights Congress

Two more of the sixteen Communists jailed last Wednesday on charges of criminal conspiracy to teach and advocate the violent overthrow of the Government were released yesterday on bail. Twenty-one secondary Communist party leaders were indicted. Four are still being sought as fugitives.

The two, released in $10,000 bail each supplied by the bail fund of the Civil Rights Congress, were: Alexander Leo Trachtenberg, 65 years old, of 114 West Sixteenth Street, head of International Publishers, Inc., and Pettis Perry, 54, of 501 West 138th Street, national secretary of the Negro commission of the party.

The release of the two left ten party functionaries still in jail in lieu of bail. Abner Green, a trustee of the bail fund, said the bail was supplied for the two because both were ill.

PITTSBURGH, June 25 (AP)—Federal District Judge Owen M. Burns today ordered Samuel A. Johnson, western Pennsylvania Communist leader, removed to New York to stand trial on charges of conspiracy to overthrow the United States Government by force.

Judge Burns issued the order after Johnson had refused to sign removal papers at an arraignment. Johnson's bail was kept at $15,000 over his protest.
